Space allocation:

Space is allocated at the organiser's discretion, based on availability of space and taking the wishes of each exhibitor as much into account as possible. If a waiting list needs to be established as a result of lack of space, this list will be handled by date of receipt of the application form.

Exclusive uniform stand packages - regulations

Exhibitors are not allowed to handle the stand construction themselves. Nor are they allowed to attach any eye-catching objects outside or above the standard stand or to attach any other high or projecting objects in, on or around the stand. It may be possible to obtain an exception to this rule, depending on the exhibits, after consultation with the organisers and with their written approval. All exhibits are displayed at the discretion of the Exhibition Committee, which retains the right to refuse and remove products.

Admission charge

The visitor admission charge to the exhibition, as referred to in article 3 of the "General Rules", is € 100.00 per person, including VAT.

Invitation cards

Exhibitors can order extra printed and digital invitation cards for distribution to their clients. The cards can be ordered in batches of 50 at a cost of € 27.50 excl. VAT. Purchased invitation cards cannot be refunded by Amsterdam RAI. Digital invitation cards can be ordered free of charge.

Terms of payment

The stand package rent, plus the appropriate VAT, must be paid in three instalments, in accordance with the provision of clause 6 of the General Rules as follows:

1. Registration fee directly after receiving confirmation of participation;
2. Advance invoice of 25% of the cost of the floor area applied for: within 21 days of the date of the advance invoice (these invoices will be sent to the exhibitors from 365 days before the exhibition onwards);
3. Final invoice of 100% (minus 25% of the advance invoice): within 21 days of the date of the final invoice confirming the allocation of stand space (these invoices will be sent from 60 days before the exhibition onwards). From 60 days before the show and onwards no advance invoices will be sent out. If the application of stand space is made less than 60 days before the first day of construction of the exhibition, the appropriate amount must be paid in full at the latest 4 days before the actual construction starts.

Refund of VAT paid

All VAT owed must be paid to the organisers. The Dutch Ministry of Finance has determined that international participants can, under certain circumstances, be entitled to a refund of the VAT paid on goods and services delivered in the Netherlands. For more information we refer to www.vatalliance.co.uk/rai All agreements and stipulations based on them are exclusively subject to Dutch law. All disputes will be settled by the competent Dutch judge.

Disputes

Any complaints should be made within 30 days of the last day of the exhibition. Complaints brought to our attention beyond this deadline will not be addressed.

Abridged version of the 'General Rules' regarding participation in fairs, exhibitions or other events organized by or in cooperation with Amsterdam RAI.

Application for stand space

- An applicant / participant (hereinafter referred to as 'Participant') declares, by means of a fully completed application form submitted to the organisers, that he/she is in agreement with the conditions of participation in force for the fair, exhibition and other event (hereinafter referred to as 'the Exhibition') contained in the relevant 'Conditions of Participation' (the entirety of the Standard Terms and Conditions, the Specific Terms and Conditions and the Standing Rules).
- No right to allocation of stand space may be derived from the application. In special cases the organisers may decide not to process an application, to allocate less stand space than has been applied for, to alter allocated stand space or to withdraw an existing allocation without the Participant being entitled to claim compensation for damage incurred.
- The information requested on the application form must be provided in full. Without being liable to pay any compensation, the organisers have the right to refuse any goods or services which have not been mentioned on the application form or which they consider inadmissible by virtue of the Conditions of Participation, or to have such goods or services removed from the Exhibition forthwith.

Cancellations

- The organisers reserve the right at all times to change the dates of the Exhibition or to cancel the Exhibition altogether in the event of circumstances beyond their control (force majeure), without a Participant having the right to claim compensation for any damage.
- No application may be cancelled or altered unilaterally by the Participant. The organisers may grant a request to cancel or alter an application subject, among other things, to the condition that the Participant concerned pays a cancellation fee. This fee amounts, at least, to:
 - upon cancellation more than 365 days before the first exhibition build-up day: 15% of the Participation Costs;
 - upon cancellation in the period from 365 to 183 days before the first exhibition build-up day: 50% of the Participation Costs;
 - upon cancellation in the period from 182 to 63 days before the first exhibition build-up day: 75% of the Participation Costs;
 - upon cancellation in the period from 62 to 32 days before the first exhibition build-up day: 100% of the Participation Costs;
 - upon cancellation in the period up to and including 31 days before the first exhibition build-up day: 120% of the Participation Costs.
- Participation Costs are the costs payable by the Participant to the organisers for the stand hire and, if applicable, the stand build-up, plus the VAT due.
- In the case of cancellation for whatever reason, the Participant will always forfeit his/her application fee, plus the VAT due.

Stand hire and payment obligations

- Unless otherwise stipulated in the Conditions of Participation, payment must be made as follows:

1. the application fee before or on the due date of the invoice in question;
2. the Participation Costs in 2 instalments:
 - 25% of the Participation Costs;
 - 100% of the Participation Costs minus the above-mentioned 25%;before or on the due date of the invoices in question.

- If the Participant does not meet his/her financial obligations, the organisers will be entitled not to proceed with the allocation of stand space, or to withdraw an existing allocation of stand space or not to make stand space available, without prejudice to the organisers' claim for full payment of the amounts due.
- The organisers are entitled to contract out the collection of the amounts owed by the Participant, in which case all costs will be borne by the Participant, plus the statutory interest and extrajudicial costs of collection amounting to 150% of the principal.

Liability

- Goods present in the Exhibition Building or its grounds are for the account and risk of the Participant. The organisers do not undertake the insurance of the goods. The organisers are not liable for any damage or injury from whatever cause to goods or persons caused by or connected with participation in the Exhibition, unless there has been intent or gross negligence on the part of the organisers. Nor can the organisers be held liable for damage to third parties caused by the use of the stand by the Participant or his/her staff or by persons working on the instructions of the Participant. The Participant shall indemnify the organisers against all claims by third parties on his account.
- The Participant is liable for and must take out adequate insurance against any damage caused in any way whatever by acts or omissions on his/her part or on the part of his/her staff or persons working for him/her or on his/her instructions or caused by his/her exhibits or goods. The Participant shall indemnify the organisers against all claims for which they may be held liable by third parties.

Final provisions

The organisers may, without giving notice of default and without recourse to the courts, take one or more of the following measures against a Participant who breaches any provision of the Conditions of Participation or fails to comply with a direction given by or on behalf of the organisers (such measures being taken at the expense of the Participant):

- refuse the person(s) concerned admission to the Exhibition and/or the Exhibition Building with immediate effect;
- have his/her stand closed and/or cleared;
- keep possession of the goods displayed and of anything constructed or installed by the Participant; without the Participant being entitled to enforce any right to restitution or reparation.

The complete text of the 'General Rules' has been provided digitally to the participants. A written copy of these rules can be obtained at all times free of charge from the organisers. The 'General Rules' were filed in May 2002 at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Amsterdam.
